R E P O R T

BOARD OF CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINERS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST DECEMBER, 1883.

The first Report of the Board of Civil Service Examiners embraced the period from the 1st day of August, 1882—the day upon which the Commissioners were notified of their appointment—to the 31st day of December of the same year, and exhibited the rules, regulations and forms adopted for the regulation of their proceedings, together with the papers they had prepared for, and the results of, the first examination which was held in the month of November, at the several places specified in the Civil Service Act of 1882.

During the year ended the 31st day of December, 1883, the Board held five several examinations, viz. :—

Two General Entrance and one Supplementary Entrance Examination. One General Promotion, and one Supplementary Promotion Examination. One special Excise Promotion Examination.

The first General Entrance Examination was begun on the 12th day of June, and occupied four days.

The General Promotion Examination was held on the 15th and 16th days of the same month.

The Supplementary Entrance Examination was held at Hamilton, commencing on the 5th day of September, and ending on the 9th.

The Supplementary Promotion Examination was held at London on the 6th and 7th days of the same month.

The second General Entrance Examination was commenced on the 13th and ended on the 17th day of November, and,

The Excise Promotion Examination began on the 19th and ended on the 24th day of November.

The number of candidates who presented themselves at the several examinations was as follows :—

Entrance Examination in June	47
Promotion Examination in June.....	148
Supplementary Entrance Examination at Hamilton, in Sep- tember.....	23
Supplementary Promotion Examination at London, in Sep- tember.....	11
Entrance Examination in November.....	344
Excise Promotion Examination in November.....	43

Total number of candidates examined..... 1,936

The Questions prepared by the Board and submitted to the Candidates at the several Entrance and at the General Promotion Examinations will be found annexed, and also the Excise Promotion Examination papers, framed by the Inland Revenue Department.

Lists of the Candidates who passed successfully the several Entrance Examinations are likewise appended.

The Candidates who came up for the Preliminary Examination only (which merely qualifies for lower grade offices), and those who, having passed that Examination, proceeded to the Qualifying, but failed in that, are classed as "Candidates who passed successfully the Preliminary Examination."

The Candidates who passed the Qualifying Examination, but either did not try the "Options," or failed in them, are classed as "Candidates who passed successfully the Qualifying Examination."

And the Candidates who passed the Qualifying, and succeeded in one or more of the Optional Subjects, are classed under that heading, and are certificated as "Honor" men.

The Promotion Examinations being proceedings affecting the Departments only, it has not been deemed necessary to publish the results.

The Board desire now, respectfully to submit, that the experience of three semi-annual Entrance Examinations, has indicated the expediency and propriety of having separate and distinct examinations for Lower Grade Office Candidates, of a simple character, which it will not be needful for the Candidates for higher grade offices to take. It is evident that the Penmanship and Orthography Exercises intended as tests, and adapted to the Candidates for the Lower Grade Office Candidates, are not appropriate for the Higher Grade men; while the exercises in the same subjects, proper to Higher Grade Candidates, will be altogether too difficult for the men who merely aspire to be servants in the lower employments.

By the mode at present pursued, numbers of men wholly unfitted for the higher offices, present themselves tentatively, and occasion a great deal of unnecessary labour and complication, with the invariable result of failure, and without any kind of advantage to compensate for those great inconveniences.

The Board have good reasons for believing, nevertheless, that the imperative necessity of undergoing examination for both grades of offices, has had a strongly stimulating effect of a beneficial nature, upon the candidates for employment in the Civil Service, and that it cannot fail still more largely, in future, to influence advantageously that class of the youth and manhood of this growing country.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. THORBURN, LL.D., Chairman.
A. D. DECELLES,
P. LESUEUR, Secretary.

(ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the great American Federalist. Appreciation of his efforts to bring about the adoption of the Constitution of the United States).

“And so Hamilton had triumphed! * * * And he had the proud satisfaction of knowing, that his success was due to no truckling to popular delusions, no flattery of the popular will, but to the free, bold, uncompromising enunciation of great truths and high principles. * * * On the 5th of August, 1788, the ratification was celebrated at New York with great public rejoicings, and Hamilton was the hero of the festival. * * * The people did not stop to consider, on this occasion, whether he was entitled, in comparison with all the other public men in the United States, to be regarded as the chief author of the blessings which they now anticipated from the Constitution. * * * They recollected his career in Congress, when his comprehensive intellect was always alert, to bear the country forward to measures and ideas that would concentrate its powers and resources in some national system. * * * They bore his image aloft upon banners. They placed the Constitution in his right hand and the Confederation in his left. They depicted fame with her trumpet crowning him with laurels. * * * All that ingenuity, all that affection, all that popular pride and gratitude could do to honor a public benefactor, was repeated again and again, through the long line of five thousand citizens of all orders and conditions, which stretched away from the shores of that beautiful bay where ocean ascends into river, and river is lost in ocean—and where commerce then wore her holiday attire, to prefigure the magnificence and power which she was to derive from the Constitution of the United States.—Life and Times of Alexander Hamilton.

THE MEN WHO SUCCEED.

Value 60.

The great cause of difference among men is energy of character. If each have the same amount of learning and integrity, and each have the same opportunity, energy will make one man a conqueror, the want of it will cause the other to be a failure.

Who are the dead-beats of the country ? They are men without energy. They had as good a chance as any of their companions when in school. Others went ahead and carried off the prizes while they were standing with their hands in their pockets, and whining "I can't." It takes nerve, vim, perseverance, patient continuance in well-doing, to win—and the young man who has no pluck will not be able even to hold his own. He will drag through life only with the help of his friends ; some will credit him with being a well-meaning man in delicate health, but dreadful unlucky. The real trouble is he lacks energy.

This is true of the minister, the lawyer, the physician, or the farmer. Piety is not enough and much learning is not enough. All the knowledge in the books will not qualify a man for usefulness. He must have push, stamina, vigor, courage, resolution, will, energy. If you have energy you will in all probability succeed in anything you undertake.

SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN.—Few characters in Canadian History better deserve notice than Monsieur de Champlain. Up to the month of October, 1635, he continued to attend diligently to his various duties, as the King's Lieutenant-General, for so the Royal Commission styled him. Then he was seized with a mortal sickness which for ten weeks he endured with calmness and resignation. On Christmas day he breathed his last. His character was in every way a noble one. He was industrious, brave, loyal and pious. Although he met with many obstacles

Value 30. | in his career, he had no enemies. This proves that he was amiable in temper and conduct. His habits were simple and frugal. He was beloved by both the French and the Indians. The chiefs of the latter delighted in his company, and would say to him "You have always something pleasant to tell us to make us laugh," and when the Huron chiefs heard of his return to Quebec from France in 1633, some of them came all the way from the shores of the Georgian Bay to bid him welcome.—Miles' History of Canada.

PROGRESS OF EDUCATION IN JAPAN.—"The most important step was taken when they (the Japanese) resolved to send to foreign countries young men to be educated in the sciences and arts of the West. As early as 1861 some of their youths were sent to Holland, and afterwards to England and America. Strangely enough some of the first to be sent out, were from the Provinces, whose Governors had been the most bitter opponents to foreign intercourse.

"They were the first to see that if they were ever to compete with the power of Western nations, they must be able to turn against them the weapons drawn from their own sciences and arts. The education of Japanese young men in foreign countries, although of so recent date, has already been productive of the most important results. Many of the most responsible positions in the Government are now filled up by men who received their education and acquired their knowledge of foreign affairs in Europe and America. These men and others equally enlightened and progressive, saw the necessity of establishing a system of education, which should give to their country a knowledge of the languages and sciences of those nations with which, in the future, they were to be so intimately associated."—Dr. Murray, Foreign Superintendent of Education in Japan, 1876.

Madagascar, the fourth largest island in the world, lies off the coast of South Africa, from which it is separated by the channel of Mozambique. Length, 980 miles; breadth, 360 miles; area, 244,000 square miles; population, about 2,500,000. It is traversed from south to north by a lofty range of mountains, which divides it into an eastern and

In the interior the elevated plains enjoy a temperate climate and a variety of seasons, but the shores are low, swampy and unhealthy. The mountains yield gold, silver, copper, iron and lead. Coal is found in small quantities. The forests contain valuable timber trees and ornamental woods. Among its important productions are indigo, manioc, rice, sugar, pepper, cotton, silk, tobacco, horey, wax, gums and medicinal plants. The Malagasy belong to various tribes, of which the Hovas are politically dominant. The Government is a monarchy. The capital, Tananarivo (80,000), is situated on a lofty plateau near the centre of the island. The chief port is Tamatave, on the east coast. The French hold the islands of S'Marie, off the east coast, and Nossi-Bé, off the north-west coast.—Lovell's Advanced Geography.

ROBINSON CRUSOE AND HIS MAN FRIDAY.

But to return to my new companion. I was greatly delighted with him, and made it my business to teach him everthing that was proper to make him useful, handy and helpful, but especially to make him speak, and understand me when I spoke, and he was the aptest scholar that ever was; and, particularly, was so merry, so constantly diligent and so pleased when he could but understand me, or make me understand him, that it was very pleasant to me to talk to him. And now my life began to be so easy, that I began to say to myself, that could I but have been safe from more savages, I cared not if I was never to remove from the place where I lived.

This was the pleasantest year of all the life I led in this place. Friday began to talk pretty well and understand the names of almost everything I had occasion to call for, and of every place I had to send him to, and talk a great deal to me; so that in short I began to have some use for my tongue again which indeed I had very little occasion for before—that is to say, about speech. Besides the pleasure of talking to him, I had a singular satisfaction in the fellow himself; his simple, unfeigned honesty appeared to me more and more every day, and I began really to love the creature; and on his side, I believe, he loved me more than ever it was possible for him ever to love anything before.

to exercise the intelligence of the candidates in making out copies free from these blemishes. Of course it is not possible to reproduce a facsimile in print.

HALIFAX, 28th October, 1852.

MESSRS. GIBB & NEVINS,
Toronto.

I have to report that in obedience to your instructions of the 15th instant, I started for this place on the 19th and arrived on the 23rd instant at 9.45 a.m. I immediately, before going to my hotel, drove to the Commercial Bank, where I saw the Manager, to whom you had sent the Bills of Lading of the two cargoes of flour and pork, and ascertained from him that the schooners had not yet arrived but were probably then in the offing, a number of sails being at that moment visible from the Citadel. I exhibited to him your power of Attorney in my favour, and then wrote him a letter instructing him to hold the Bills of Lading for me until I saw him again. At first he said he thought it would be advisable before committing himself to my request to consult the Bank's Solicitor, but afterwards concluded he would call the Directors together, and desired me to look in about noon. Shortly after 12 a.m., I called and was informed by that gentleman that, if I desired it, the Bank would give me up the Bills of Lading and the drafts on Messrs. Simmons & Sons, and I accepted the offer, giving a receipt for the same.

I then proceeded to the office of the Messrs. Simmons and made myself known to the head of the firm, who appeared strangely moved when I informed him that before giving up the Bills of Lading I would require adequate security, offering him, however, 24 hours to provide it, if he wished. He had but little to say, but asked me to call on the morrow. Early next morning the schooners arrived, and at noon I again saw Mr. Simmons, who without any circumlocution said they had concluded to abandon the cargoes, adding he was glad to do so. The next morning I understood his meaning, for it then became known that the house was hopelessly insolvent. I confess that I feel quite relieved, for I had feared trouble, but it is evident you had a narrow escape from a heavy loss. I am in expectation of selling the pork at the price the Simmons' were to pay, and the flour at some advance.

I am, Sirs,

Your obedient servant,

GEORGE TURNER.

Charles Brooks owns \$20,000 Dominion stock, which he sells through a broker at $107\frac{1}{2}$, or $7\frac{1}{2}$ prem., paying the broker $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. (as he does on all the operations in which he uses his services). From the proceeds he lodges, on the 1st May, \$10,000 as a special deposit in the Bank of Ottawa at 4 per cent. interest and places the balance to his credit in current account (without interest). On 1st June he buys, through his broker, \$5,000 of County of Carleton Debentures, issued on 5th February and bearing interest at 6 per cent., for which he pays (by cheque on the bank) $101\frac{1}{2}$. He keeps these debentures until one half year's interest is due, which he collects (by means of the coupons) and then sells them (through his broker) at $102\frac{1}{2}$, and deposits the product with the interest received to his current account. On 31st October he draws out his special deposit and the accrued (6 mos.) interest, and also lodges the whole to his credit in his current account. He then buys (through his broker) \$8,000 Gas stock at 85, or 15 per cent. discount, \$3,700 Quebec Bank stock at 113 (or 13 per cent. prem.), and \$7,200 Ottawa Bank stock at 109 (or 9 per cent. prem.), paying for the whole (inclusive of brokerage) by cheques on the bank. But he is suddenly called to England, and finding a capitalist willing to give him $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. advance on what the securities have cost him, he passes them over to him at that rate (not employing a broker) and receives therefor a cheque, which he lodges to his current account as before. What will his balance be at this point?

He then purchases a Bill of Exchange on London at sight for £4,000 stg. at $10\frac{1}{2}$ prem. (over the old par of course) and a draft on New York for \$2,500 at $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent. prem., paying for both by cheque. The balance which remains he draws out in cash for travelling expenses. How much cash does he receive and what profit has he made over the face value of his Dominion stock?

Brokerage is always calculated on the face or nominal value of stocks, debentures, &c. On all the purchases and sales effected by the broker in this case $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. is to be allowed him.

PRÉCIS WRITING.

(Read the subjoined memoir of the Hon. John Neilson, and give the substance or so much as you can of it and in the way you may deem best, but in so condensed a form as not to occupy more than a fourth part of the space).

HON. JOHN NEILSON.

John Neilson, sixth child of William Neilson and Isabel Brown his wife, was born in Scotland, at Dornald, in the parish of Balmaghie, in the stewartry of Kircudbright, on the 17th July, 1776. When about fourteen years of age, his family sent him to seek his fortune in Canada, placing him under the care of his elder brother, Samuel Neilson, who had just then succeeded his uncle, Mr. W. Brown, in the property and editorship of the Quebec Gazette, which had been first published by him and his partner, Mr. Gilmour, on the 21st June, 1764.

Mr. S. Neilson died in 1793, and Mr. J. Neilson being yet a minor, the publication of the Gazette was conducted by the late Reverend Mr. (afterwards Dr.) Sparks, his guardian, until 1796, when, Mr. Neilson coming of full age, he assumed the direction of the paper, and from that period it took a new character of interest and importance. In 1810, the increasing demand for political intelligence and the importance of the public questions which began to be discussed in the Legislature, induced Mr. Neilson to enlarge the size of the paper, and to publish it twice a week, and, as had formerly been the case, in both languages. Under the management of its judicious editor, the Quebec Gazette acquired a perceptible and increasing influence on public opinion, by the ability and discretion with which political subjects were discussed in it; the personal influence of its editor naturally increased with that of his journal; his capacity for civil affairs attracted the attention of his fellow-citizens, and in 1818, he was brought forward as a candidate and elected to the Provincial Assembly, as a member for the county of Quebec: he thus entered upon a new and more important political career; he was now in the full vigor of his age and ripened intellect, and, as might be expected from his character, he soon took a lead in the active business of the Legislature. At an early period after he became a legislator, he turned his attention to the measures necessary for the promotion of two of the most important and enduring interests of civil society—education and agriculture; and, as an auxiliary to the latter, he sought to effect an improvement in the system of granting the waste lands, to encourage the survey and exploration of unknown territory within the limits of the Province, and thus to assist the development of the resources of the country.

He bore a leading part also in the discussion of the grave questions which, after 1818, occupied the public mind, and led to differences between the Executive Government and the assembly, as to the control and appropriation of the public revenues—the accusations brought against public functionaries—the plurality of offices, and the alleged abuses or evils in the administration of Government, Mr. Neilson's conduct was marked by firmness and impartiality, and by that spirit of justice which was part of his individual character.

The disputes between the Executive Government and the Assembly, on financial matters, had, in 1822, apparently become so irreconcilable, that the Imperial Government, pressed at the same time by Upper Canada to interfere in a question of finance pending between the Provinces, determined to propose to Parliament to re-unite the Provinces. The intelligence of this measure created general uneasiness among a large part of the people of Lower Canada, and a strenuous spirit of opposition to it being aroused, it was determined by those adverse to it to send delegates to England with representations against it. Mr. Neilson was chosen as the delegate from the district of Quebec, and Mr. Papineau, for that of Montreal, and through their remonstrances, supported by the influence of Sir J. Macintosh in Parliament, or rather by his withdrawal of the assistance which the Government had understood him to have promised, the measure was, in 1823, abandoned for the present.

In 1823, the discussions between the local Government and the Assembly having become more and more exasperated, a petition of grievance was sent to England addressed to the Sovereign and Parliament, complaining of the administration of the Government, and bearing the names of upwards of 80,000 inhabitants of the Province. Mr. Neilson was again chosen as a delegate, jointly with Mr. D. B. Viger and Mr. Cuvillier, to support the complaints and demands of the petitioners before the Imperial authorities; and a committee of inquiry having been appointed by the House of Commons, Mr. Neilson and the other delegates were examined, with many other witnesses; and a report was made favorable in the main to the views of the petitioners.

Both before and after that celebrated inquiry, Mr. Neilson always expressed his entire confidence in the good intentions, liberality and justice of the British Government, in every thing that concerned the welfare of the people of Lower Canada; and the recommendations of the report then made, being carried into execution, in a spirit of concession and conciliation by a new Governor (Sir James Kempt), had the effect of producing a greater degree of tranquility in the Province.

On the 29th of March, 1830, Mr. Neilson received the thanks of the House of Assembly for his services on this mission to England; and we extract a part of his answer to the Speaker on that occasion:

"In performing a duty imposed upon me by my fellow-citizens, I did nothing more than was incumbent on any inhabitant of the Province, who might be honored with their confidence; and whose means might allow of those sacrifices of ease and individual interest which we all owe to the common welfare, and of which so many of my most esteemed friends, both in and out of the committee by which I was delegated, have set such an honorable example. Next, after the consciousness of having faithfully endeavored to discharge a public duty, the best reward is, the certainty that we have been successful as to obtain the approbation of those for whom we have acted; it is in this respect, that I set the highest value on the testimony of approbation with which the representatives of the people have been pleased to honor me."

Nor was this vote of thanks the only public mark of approbation which Mr. Neilson's services to the people called forth. In January, 1831, a silver vase, which cost one hundred and fifty guineas (raised by public subscription) was presented to him at a public dinner, given to him by a large number of his fellow-citizens, in testimony of their gratitude for his services in England, in 1823 and 1828. This tribute bore the following inscription:

"A JOHN NEILSON, Ecr., M.P.P., député deux fois auprès du Parlement Impérial pour défendre les droits des Canadiens; ce léger tribut de reconnaissance lui est offert en mémoire des services qu'il a rendus au pays, et comme un hommage à ses vertus civiques."

Mr. Neilson's well-known modesty, however, prevented any notice of this public honor from appearing in the Quebec Gazette, and we have been obliged to take these details from a contemporary journal.

It was about this period that a difference of opinion on points of political importance began first to shew itself between Mr. Neilson and the leaders of the party with whom he had generally hitherto acted.

His career was in nothing more remarkable than for his constant desire to maintain the ancient institutions, usages, and social arrangements of the French Canadian-portion of the population; and he vigorously opposed the measure called Le Bill des Fabriques, in 1831, which he considered as a needless and mischievous encroachment on the laws and customs by which the parochial church corporations had hitherto been governed, and as tending to create disorder and confusion, where tranquillity and contentment had generally prevailed before.

The separation thus made was widened still further at the same period, and the political quiet partially restored by the measures of administration in 1829 and 1830, was again disturbed by the agitation of the question of an elective Legislative Council, by the imprisonment of two publishers of newspapers for alleged libels on that body, and, by the deplorable events at the Montreal election, in 1832, when the editor of one of those papers was elected to the Assembly. When this unfortunate occurrence was made the subject of investigation before a committee of the Assembly, and the feelings of party and origin were aroused into irritated action, Mr. Neilson abstained from taking any part in the proceedings, and his conduct on that occasion was justly considered as indicating his marked disapprobation of the course pursued by his political friends, who strove to cast the whole odium of the occurrences in question upon the civil and military authorities. He looked with ill-boding and prophetic eye on the measures of his party, as mischievously intermeddling with what ought to have been left to the proper tribunals of justice; and from that period may be dated his entire separation from that party. The consequences of that separation to himself personally were soon evident; for, on the occasion of the general election of 1834, he was thrown out of the representation of the county of Quebec, for which he had sat for fifteen years.

In the Session of 1834, the celebrated ninety-two resolutions on the state of the country, (which a Minister of the Crown described as a "paper revolution," but which have now almost become a reality), were adopted, and were brought before the Imperial Parliament, in a petition, calling for organic changes in the constitution, and the general adoption of the elective principle. Those who desired to maintain the constitution of the country unimpaired, formed themselves into "Constitutional Associations," throughout the Province; and sent home petitions to the Government and Parliament in England. True to his principle of seeking administrative and opposing needless constitutional changes, Mr. Neilson accepted appointment as delegate from Quebec, associated with Mr. Walker, an advocate, of Montreal, to carry these petitions to England, and urge the objects of them there. Upon this third mission, Mr. Neilson proceeded to England, in the spring of 1835, and communicated with the new Colonial Secretary, Lord Glenelg; but, in the month of July, the British Cabinet determined to transfer the further inquiry into these political distractions to the Province itself, by recalling Lord Aylmer, and sending out Lord Gosford, as Governor-in-Chief, with a commission also, jointly, with two others as commissioners of inquiry. Mr. Neilson, consequently, returned immediately to Canada.

Amongst the events of 1837 and 1838, Mr. Neilson was found true to those loyal principles, which he had always inculcated—recommending order and obedience to the laws, and respect to the constituted authorities. Notwithstanding the deplorable revolt of a portion of the population, he still showed himself the firm and constant friend of the French Canadians, and maintained that the mass of the people were untainted by disloyalty or disaffection.

He loved to talk of their primitive manners and customs, their simple character and habits, and the peculiar changes and occurrences of their history; for their clergy, too, he entertained a high respect; which was returned by equal respect and regard, on their part, which followed him, it is believed, to the last moments of his life, and still attends his memory.

The union of the Provinces, which followed upon the events of 1837-8, was opposed by Mr. Neilson, so long as he conceived that opposition could be of any avail;—having been called to the special Council, in 1839, after the suspension of the constitution, he there voted against the union, being supported only by two other members (Messrs. DeRocheblave and Quesnel), and in June, 1840, at a general meeting of the inhabitants of Quebec, he proposed a series of resolutions, which were embodied in a petition sent to England, remonstrating against the measure.

When the Act of Union passed, Mr. Neilson came forward, and was elected without opposition, as member for his old county of Quebec, in the united Legislature. One of the first measures introduced by him, was an act to restore to the electors of the suburbs of St. Roch and St. John, the right of voting for members, which had been taken away from them by the electoral arrangement under the Act of Union.

Mr. Neilson's rooted desire to stand by old institutions, and even usages, again manifested itself in his constant disapprobation of what is called "responsible Government;" and his opinions upon this innovation upon the old system of Colonial Government, are to be found thickly scattered through his editorial articles in the Quebec Gazette, from the adoption of the resolutions upon this subject in the Assembly in 1841.

On the formation of a new Government, in November, 1843, he was urged to accept the honorable post of Speaker of the Legislative Council; but he declined it as he had uniformly declined every office of emolument, in fulfilment of a public declaration he once made to his constituents, and it was not till the Session of 1844 that he consented, though the offer had before been frequently made to him, to become a member of that branch of the Legislature.

He was now verging to the appointed period of three score years and ten, and his constitution betrayed the inroads of age. He had already seen many contemporaries go before him to the grave, with whom he had been connected in the relation of sincere friendship, or in those of political life; but he still continued to take the active part which he considered to be his duty, as a member of society, in all public measures, either within the Legislature or without, which appeared to him conducive to the public weal; on such occasions, he shrunk not from meeting or co-operating with those who might be of an adverse political party, and the respect with which his suggestions were received in the public assemblies of his fellow citizens, showed the weight attached to his opinions, and the confidence reposed in his ripened judgment and long experience in public affairs.

It was at last in discharging a voluntary duty that he had taken upon himself by attending with his brethren of St. Andrew's Society, to receive the representative of his Sovereign with due honor on his visit to Quebec, in October, 1847, that Mr. N. brought on himself the malady which proved ultimately fatal to him; he was on the occasion exposed for a considerable time to a chilling rain, but persisted in remaining to read the address of his fellow citizens, to His Excellency, on his first arrival in the ancient capital of Canada.

He was shortly after taken ill, and never fully shook off the disease; but in spite of increasing weakness, his spirit failed him not, nor his habits of application to business; so that neither his family nor his medical attendants perceived the full extent of his danger, and it may be said that he "died in harness," for the very evening before his death, he wrote off for the next issue of the Gazette, and with a steady hand, an almost without obliteration, the two remarkable articles, his last impressive words to his fellow citizens, which appeared in the Gazette of the 31st January, 1848; the following day he was no more.—Morgan's Celebrated Canadians.

BRITISH POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Prof. Fawcett, the blind, but very able, English Postmaster-General, has recently made a report upon the Post Office, which is full of interesting and suggestive facts. The English Post Office has gradually become, not only the great medium for conveying letters and papers, but a sort of general convenience bureau for the benefit of the people. It is a great national savings bank; it is a financial agency for transmitting sums of money; it is a vast express office for conveying goods and parcels; and is a universal telegraph bureau. It will not, perhaps, be long before the management of the telephone will also be included among its functions.

Some idea of the extent to which the English use their Post Office may be gathered from the fact that it yields a revenue to the national treasury of no less than fifteen and a-half million dollars annually. The sum is the net income from the Post Office, after all its expenses have been paid. The immense increase in the use of the Post Office by the people may be judged when it is said that forty years ago that department did not pay its own way. Under the old system of expensive postage, when it was a costly luxury to send a letter to a friend from London to York, the Post Office was a burden upon, instead of being a contributor to, the national treasury.

About 1840 Sir Rowland Hill persuaded Parliament to adopt the uniform postage of one penny for each letter not weighing more than half an ounce; to apply this to the whole kingdom; and at the same time to abolish the privilege of franking, which had been before enjoyed by Lords and Commons. The great reform which put it in the power of the poorest to make use of the Post Office, by making postage everywhere cheap, was also the beginning of the financial prosperity of the department. Before the adoption of the penny postage it was calculated that every man, woman, and child in Great Britain and Ireland received, on an average, three letters a year. Now, every person receives on an average, thirty-five letters a year. More than twelve hundred millions of letters are annually sent out through the mail. Besides these, the Post Office distributes two hundred and seventy millions of book-packets and circulars, one hundred and forty millions of newspapers, and thirty-one millions of telegrams.

Improvements are continually going on in the British Post Office. Prof. Fawcett is inspired with great ardor for reform. Parcels will soon be sent through the office weighing seven pounds and under, for three pence (six cents) a pound. A system is about to be introduced by which a person who receives a postal card may write and return his answer on the same card. Tricycles and bicycles are now used by the English Post Office in some parts of the country. The postmen ride

Value 100. on these from hamlet to hamlet, delivering the mails. Another recent reform is the permission given to use postage and receipt stamps indiscriminately for both purposes.

The British Post Office is a vast and noble department of the Public Service. It is managed with great ability, tact and vigor. Never was there a more beneficent or more enlightening administrative machine; nor does its capacity for usefulness yet seem by any means exhausted.

THE CANADIAN LACROSSE TEAM.

HOW THEY ARE TO BE RECEIVED AT INVERNESS.

50

The Northern Chronicle of Inverness, speaking of the visit of the team says: "The event will be one of great interest, and it is pleasing to see that steps were taken yesterday, not only to give the Canadians a kind reception, but to lend an auspiciousness to the occasion by a public entertainment. Lacrosse is, we may explain, the national game of Canada as cricket is of England. The aborigines played the game before the discovery of the new world. The present name was given to it by French Canadians, owing to the resemblance of the curved netted stick the chief implement used in the pastime, to a bishop's crozier or crosse." After describing the game, the Chronicle says it is played by skaters on the ice during winter, or on the snow with the aid of snowshoes. Thus Canadians, now that they are abroad, are likely to hear some news of themselves. It cannot fail of gratifying the friends of the team and Canadians generally, however, to learn that Inverness is looking forward to the game and the meeting with pleasure. The Rev. Gavin Lang appeared to be the moving spirit at the preliminary meeting held to make the arrangements, and was very warm in his eulogium of all things Canadian, especially Dr. Beers and the Canadian team. Provost Fraser, Inverness; Sheriff Blair; Mr. Allan R. Mackenzie, of Kintail; Mr. N. J. Macgillivray, of Dumanglass; Captain Wimberley, Ardras Terrace, Inverness; Mr. H. C. Macandrew; Mr. E. H. Macmillan; Mr. C. W. Bourne, M. A., Collegiate School, and Mr. Allan Macdonald, solicitor were appointed a committee of arrangements for the reception of the team.

LITERARY WORK.

Lord Bulwer Lytton was one of the prolific writers of our century, and must have published twenty or more volumes, in fiction, poetry, art and historical criticism. But he was accustomed, by his own testimony, to write only two hours a day, concentrating all his powers on intense labor during that time.

Walter Scott, during a considerable portion of his literary life, did all his hard brain work before breakfast, which came, however, at a late hour, nine or ten o'clock. After breakfast he devoted himself to the entertainment of guests, who wondered when he found time for writing.

Moses Stuart in his prime, was regarded as the most learned and enthusiastic Biblical scholar in this country, but his health was so frail, and his nervous system so prostrated, that he was unable to devote more than three hours a day to intense study. The example of these eminent scholars and authors shows how much may be accomplished by any one who is methodical in habit, and studies with enthusiasm for even a brief period of the day.

But the "Deserted Village" is of all Goldsmith's productions, unquestionably the favorite. It carries back the mind to the early seasons of life and re-asserts the power of unsophisticated tastes. Hence while other poems you state this preserves its charm. Dear to the heart, and sacred to the imagination, are those sweet delineations of unperverted existence. There is true pathos in that tender lament over the superseded sports and ruined haunts of rustic enjoyment, which never fails to find a response in every feeling breast. It is an elaborate and touching epitaph, written in the cemetery of the world, over what is dear to all humanity. There is a truth in the eloquent defence of agricultural pursuits, and natural pastimes, that steals like a well remembered strain over the heart immersed in the toil and crowds of cities. There is an unborn beauty in the similes of the bird and her "unfledged offspring," the hare that "pants from the place from whence at first he flew" and the "tall cliff that lifts its awful form" which despite their familiarity retain their power to delight. And no clear and susceptible mind can ever lose its interest in the unforced, unexaggerated and heart-stirring numbers, which animate with pleasure the pulses of youth, gratify the mature taste of manhood, and fall with soothing sweetness upon the ear of age.

POST OFFICE INSPECTOR'S OFFICE,

LONDON, ONT., 5th October, 1882.

SIR,—I have the honor to report that pursuant to your telegram of the 2nd instant, I proceeded at once to Cornfield Post Office, where grave money order irregularities appeared to have occurred, and arrived on the morning of the third. At 8 o'clock a.m. I was in the office; and, on enquiring for Mr. Twiner, the Postmaster, was told he was very unwell. In half an hour, he came down and I requested him to hand me the Money Order books of account and the Money Order forms, together with his Bank receipts for moneys remitted during the previous two weeks, but found he had made no remittances. He produced the books with evident distress, and, without hesitation, acknowledged he was largely in default.

Having ascertained from the Superintendent of the Money Order Branch, by a letter which reached me early in the morning at Cornfield that—inclusive of Local Money Order No. 311, dated 20th September and drawn on Toronto, for $93, and Order No. 79, of the same date, on Buffalo, for $49—he should then have had $619.33 in hand, I proceeded to make up his issues subsequent to that date, and found he had drawn—

Twelve Local Orders to 30th September—Nos. 312 to 324, inclusive amounting to	$320 00
Upon which he had received in commission.....	1 70
That he had granted three Sterling Orders, viz.: Nos. 312, 313 and 314, amounting to.....	73 25
The commission thereon being	1 60

That he had also drawn Orders Nos. 80 to 81, on Boston,
for	100 00
The commission being	1 00

In all.....	$497 55
Which, added to the balance of 20th September, viz.	619 33

Made up a gross sum of	$1,116 88
------------------------------	------------

The following Money Orders had been paid :—

September 20th, No. 3,751, Hamilton.....	$27 25
do 22nd, No. 8,911, Toronto	33 75
do 27th, No. 46, Thorold.....	3 15
	64 15

So that the balance due on this account is	$1,052 73

By questioning Mr. Twiner, I found he had apparently received a small sum on Savings' Bank account, but he was so sick, and his papers were in such confusion, that I was not able to ascertain anything definite on this head. The Savings' Bank Branch will probably be able to clear this up. .

I made a formal demand of Mr. Twiner for $1,052.73, when he replied that he had no money, nor could I induce him to say what had become of it. By conversation with other parties, however, I ascertained that he had been speculating in wheat and had lost something like $7,000, so that he is, beyond doubt, in inextricable difficulties.

I at once suspended Mr. Twiner and took charge of the office, telegraphing to the Postmaster at London to send me Mr. Cole, who had just returned, after a long sick-leave, and who could be spared without inconvenience. Mr. Cole arrived on the evening of the 3rd instant, and the business will be quite safe in his hands until an appointment is made.

Immediately after having ascertained the state of matters at Cornfield, I informed Mr. Twiner's two sureties, Messrs. Chas. Smith and Wm. Brown by letter, of his default. They both reside in the village, and waited upon me in the afternoon. Their standing and character are quite satisfactory, and they assured me that so soon as the exact figure of the default was established, they would remit the amount to the Bank of Montreal at London, so that no loss will follow this unfortunate affair.

Mr. Twiner has been arrested at the instance of his sureties, and has given bail to appear.

I have reason to think that he intended to abscond, but was prevented by illness.

I shall await your instructions as to any further action.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. ROBERTS,
P. O. Inspector, London.

The Honorable
The Postmaster-General,
Ottawa.

BOOK-KEEPING.

(The candidates from the Departments of the Interior and Indian Affairs, and those from the Money Order and Savings Bank Branches of the Post Office Department, will take this subject.)

By agreement, Joseph Brisk, of Montreal, supplies $10,000 in cash, and also goods to the amount of $15,840 to John Bright, of Brandon, Manitoba, on 1st May, 1875, for purposes of trade. The conditions are that he (Brisk) will receive 6 per cent. on the cash and 60 per cent. of all the profits on the business—after the charges are deducted—and Bright 40 per cent.

On 2nd May, Bright buys 4,000 bushels of seed wheat at $1.50 per bushel, and within 10 days sells 3,100 bushels at an average price of $2.35 per bushel.

Then he buys 20 town lots in Brandon for which he pays $5,000, and by the fall has sold them all for an aggregate sum of $17,500.

During the month of May he sells of the merchandise to the amount of $3,250 (Montreal prices) at an advance of 90 per cent., and in June $7,330 (Montreal prices) at an advance of 85 per cent.

Later in the season he sells the balance of the wheat at an average price of $2 per bushel, and in the fall disposes of the rest of the merchandise by auction at an average advance (over Montreal prices) of 73 per cent.—the Montreal price meaning in every case the prices charged for the goods by Brisk.

The charges on the business have been: Rent $2,350, salaries $1,800, freight and truckage $3,390, insurance $122 50, and taxes $200.

By this time, land, wheat and goods have all been turned into cash.

This cash he invests in buffalo robes and other furs which he takes to Montreal and sells at double their cost.

Show what the total profit has been after the repayment of Brisk's money (with one year's interest) and goods, and then divide the balance as first agreed upon, between Brisk and Bright. How much of the profit will each get?

England's Forgotten Worthies.

Wherever we find them they are still the same. In the Courts of Japan or China; fighting Spaniards in the Pacific or prisoners among the Algerians; founding colonies which, by and by, were to grow into enormous trans-Atlantic republics, or exploring in crazy pinnaces the fierce latitudes of the polar seas—they are the same indomitable, God fearing men whose life was one great liturgy. "The ice was strong, but God was stronger," says one of Frobisher's men, after spending a night and a day among the icebergs, not waiting for God to come down and split the ice for them, but toiling through the long hours himself and the rest fending off the vessel with poles and planks, with death glaring at them out of the rocks. Icebergs seem strong, Spaniards were strong, and storms and corsairs and rocks and reefs, which no chart had then noted—they were all strong; but God was stronger, and that was all which they cared to know.

Soap.

A histry of sope wold be very interesting. Who invanted sope? Wen and were did it furst come intoo comon use? How did our remoot ancessters wash themselves befoar sope was invinted? These are histerical queshtons that naterally arize at first contimplation of the subjec; but, as far as we ar aware, historians have faled too answer them. We reed a grate deel in ansient histries about annointing oil and the yuse of varios kosmeticks for the skin, but nothing about sope.

These ansients must have been verry greesy peeple, and I suspec that thay washed themselfs pretty neerly in the same way as moddern engine-drivors kleen there finngers, by wipin of the isle with a bit of koton waist.

A grate manny kurios things were found berried under the sinders of Vesouvious and Pompayi, and seeled up in lava that floed over Herculanium. Bred, whine, frutes and other dumestick artickles inelueing sevrall luxshuries of the tilet, such as pommades or pommade pots, and rooge for paneting ladyes' facies, but no sope for washin them. In the British Museum is a large varyety of houseold reequirements found in the Pyrramids of Egyp, but there is no sope, and we ave not herd of anny being diskov-
ered theere * * * *

To larn whot substitooto may ave ben provided, we may obsarve the habbits of moddern savages. Clay, were it is found, having some propper- ties of fuller's earth, is frealy used for lavatory purposes, and was proper- bly uzed by the Romans. They were esentially a nasty people, the abits of the poor were " cheep and nasty," and of the rich luxshurious and nasty. They took baths occashonaly and weir properly skoured and shampood as well as iled, but it is doubtfull weather thay ever purformed any interme- giate dommestick ablootions worth naiming.

Trout Fishing.

Such an hour and a-half of trout fishing, I had never seen, and never will see again. Two large baskets were filled to the brim! How can a reasonable creature find pleasure in having performed such an exploit? If trout were wanted for human food, a net would have answered the purpose with less trouble to the man, and less annoyance to the fish. Throughout creation man is the only animal who kills for the sake of killing what he does not want, and calls it sport.

All other animals seize their prey only when they are hungry, and are satisfied when their hunger is appeased.

TRANSCRIPTION.

This paper is presented somewhat like a first rough draft, and purposely exhibits scored out words, interlineations, and marginal additions. The candidates will, of course, leave the scored matter out, and take in, at their proper places, the interlineations and marginal additions, so as to produce an exercise without break or blemish. The neatness of the writing will—besides the correctness of the transcription—count in the valuation of the work.

ROMAN DICTATOR.

The Dictator at Rome was a magistrate invested with legal authority. This officer, whose magistracy seems to have been borrowed from the customs of the Albans or Latins, was first chosen during the Roman war against the Latins. The Consuls being unable to raise forces for the defence of the State, the Senate found it necessary to elect a new magistrate, with absolute power, to take charge of the country. The Dictator remained in office for six months, after which he was again elected, if the affairs of the state imperatively required his care; but if tranquility was established, he generally laid down his power before the time was expired. He knew no superior in the Republic, and even the laws were subjected to him. He was named by the Consul in the night, viva voce, and his election was confirmed by the auguries, though sometimes he was nominated or recommended by the people. As his power was absolute, he could proclaim war, levy forces, conduct them against the enemy and disband them at pleasure. He punished as he pleased; and from his decision there was no appeal, at least till later times. He was preceded while on the march, by twenty-four lectors with the fascies. During his administration all other officers, except the tribunes of the people, were suspended, and he was the master of the Republic. But amidst all this independence he was not permitted to go beyond the boundaries of Italy, and he was always obliged to march on foot in his expeditions, and he would not ride in difficult and laborious marches without previously obtaining a formal leave from the people. He was chosen when the State was in imminent danger from foreign enemies or inward seditions. This office so respectable and illustrious in the first ages of the Republic, became odious by the perpetual usurpations of Sylla and Julius Cæsar, and after the death of the latter, the Senate, on the motion of the Consul Antony, passed a decree which forever after, forbade a Dictator to exist in Rome. The Dictatorship was originally confined to the Patricians, but the plebeians were afterwards admitted to share it. Titus Lartius Flavius was the first Dictator, A.U.C., 253.

THE NEW CABLES.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK OF CONSTRUCTION—DESCRIPTION OF THE MATERIAL.

London, Oct. 20.—Messrs Siemens are energetically pushing the work on the new Mackay-Bennett cables, now being manufactured by them at Charlton Pier, Woolwich. They will form a duplicate line from Ireland to Nova Scotia, continued from Nova Scotia by special cable to Cape Ann, and having a branch line from Ireland to France. The work was definitely begun last week, and though materials are still being prepared and tested, yet it is already possible to determine the character of the cables. Their core will contain a strand of eleven copper wires of the highest conductivity, weighing 350 pounds per nautical mile, and the dielectric will consist of eight coatings of gutta percha placed upon the wire according to the improved method of Messrs. Siemens, and weighing 300 pounds per nautical mile. The deep sea portion will be covered with galvanized steel wire and Manilla hemp. All the intermediate cables are armed with steel wires. The shore ends are of the usual heavy types. Messrs. Siemens are convinced that nothing superior has ever come from their factories. They will introduce all the improvements suggested by years of research and experience. The length of the entire system of cables will be 5,600 miles. They will be laid by the steamer "Faraday" in the course of next summer. A visit to the works at Woolwich shows that everything is in a forward state of preparation.

TRANSLATION.

NOTE.—This translation is intended for English candidates.

In Queen Elizabeth's time the subject of colonization in the New World fired the imaginations and exercised the intellects of every statesman, soldier and poet in England. There was no misgiving then as to the value of such settlements to the old world. Bacon's essay on Colonies (or "Plantations" as they were called in his time) comprises in three or four pages, an amount of sagacious counsel and practical wisdom which might have saved politicians of later days from many a grievous error. Some of his warnings are almost prophetic. "Plantations," he tells us, "are amongst ancient, primitive and heroic works," and in accordance with this high estimate of their value, is his humane advice that colonies should be planted "in a pure soil; that is, where people are not displanted to the end to plant in others"; that the planter of colonies, as of trees, should wait patiently for his recompense, "for," says Bacon, "the principal thing that hath been the destruction of most plantations hath been the base and hasty drawing of profit in the first years." How much misery and evil might have been avoided had later statesmen borne in mind his maxim—"It is a shameful and unblessed thing to take the scum of people, and wicked condemned men, to be the people with whom you plant, and," he adds, "not only so, but it spoileth the plantation; for they will ever live like rogues, and not fall to work, but be lazy and do mischief and spend victuals and be quickly weary, and then certify over to their country to the discredit of the plantation."

Keeping Unprofitable Stock.

A serious loss in farming often results from stocking the farm with animals that poorly repay the cost of keeping. Few farmers are entirely exempt at some times from this kind of property, but it is, I think, much more carefully guarded against than it once was. Years ago, I can remember that all the farmers in my vicinity kept a lot of animals which I now know must have been a source of constant loss. Of course, the cost of keeping was less in those days, or rather, I should say, was not then estimated as it should be. Cattle and other stock were allowed to run in pasture through the summer, and their owner thought all they increased in value was clear gain. There was a little more care about winter feeding, hay and grain having a commercial value. But it was scarcely thought possible to make stock pay the cost of keeping, and this was rarely attempted. The only caution was not to stock too heavily, by which was meant not to keep more animals than the farmer could feed from home-grown produce without paying out money.

Western competition on lands much cheaper than our own, has put an end to much of this reckless kind of stock-keeping, but there is yet far more of it than there should be. I think on grain-growing farms there is not the care in keeping only the best stock that there is where the latter is made a specialty. In a dairy district, not many farmers will long keep cows so deficient in milk and butter production as are often found on farms where a mixed system of husbandry prevails; yet the dairyman may and often does keep inferior work horses. An old plug will do as well as any to draw milk. The result is that all his farm work is hindered, and made more costly than it should be, by inefficient team help. In fact, the rule appears to be in every vocation that the specialist in one thing shall be more or less deficient in every other. What money is made by the main farm operations, is apt to be frittered away on the incidentals.

Grain and fruit are the specialties of this section at the present time. Usually in the fall, farmers will have several hundred bushels of wheat, corn, oats and barley, on which they can figure a fair profit, yet by the time the year comes around, most of this has gone, and, excepting a slight increase in farm machinery, there is little to show for it.

By Précis is to be understood the making of an abstract of one or more official documents or of correspondence. The merits of such a précis are:—1st. To give the really important points treated, leaving out everything unimportant; 2nd. To do this in a clear, distinct and consecutive manner; and, 3rd. To do it as briefly as may be compatible with completeness. Read the whole of the paper first, and having thus apprehended its purport, proceed to give its substance.

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE OF SCHOOL MATERIAL.

(AS REPORTED BY DR. HODGINS, DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION FOR ONTARIO.)

During my stay at Philadelphia and that of the other representatives of the Department, several applications were made for the purchase or exchange of selections from our School Material for those of other School Exhibits. After conversing on the subject with Hon. General Eaton, the United States Commissioner of Education, he addressed me the following letter on the subject:

No. 1.—LETTER FROM THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, TO THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION FOR ONTARIO, DATED DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, BUREAU OF EDUCATION, WASHINGTON, D.C., JULY 20TH, 1876.

In organizing at the capital of the nation a Museum exhibiting the appliances and progress of education, it would give me great satisfaction to include a full representation of these articles from your country.

We desire that in this representation the Museum should present as complete an idea of education throughout the world as possible.

It would be especially gratifying if your Government or the exhibitors representing it at Philadelphia, could furnish to this office their interesting educational collection so far as it is to remain in this country.

Hoping that this proposition may be agreeable to you, and receive your favorable consideration.

To this letter I replied to the effect that I would recommend it to the favorable consideration of the Honourable the Minister of Education, which I did on my return to Toronto. Having done so, the following:

No. 2.—LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT WAS SENT TO GENERAL EATON, DATED EDUCATION OFFICE, TORONTO, 28TH AUGUST, 1876.

I am directed by the Honourable the Minister of Education to thank you for your communication of the 20th July, and to state that the important subject of it will be submitted for the consideration and action of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, with the recommendation of the Minister that he be authorized to make such arrangements, by exchange or otherwise, as may enable the Education Department of Ontario to be adequately represented in your proposed Museum at Washington.

No. 3.—LETTER FROM THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION TO THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, DATED EDUCATION OFFICE, TORONTO, 11TH OCTOBER, 1876.

I have the honor to state, that Dr. May has reported that he had seen you in regard to exchanging articles under your direction for some of those in our Educational Exhibit in Philadelphia.

As already intimated to you, the Honourable the Minister of Education is desirous of doing so. It has occurred to me that probably you could easily arrange with the Smithsonian Institution to give us on your behalf for such articles in our Exhibit as you might select, duplicates of some of the Natural History and other specimens on exhibition in the United States Government building. Duplicates also of the models of the caves and cliff ruins of Colorado, &c., from the Geological survey, &c., as well as Indian curiosities, might, through your intervention, be exchanged for some of our things.

I hope to be at our Department in Philadelphia early next week, when I should like to call on you in regard to this matter. In the meantime, you might give it your consideration.

The Department thanks you very heartily for your cordial reception of our Public School Teachers while on their late visit to Philadelphia, and for your kind attention to them.

Being in Philadelphia shortly afterwards, I addressed the following to General Eaton:—

No. 4.—LETTER FROM THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION FOR ONTARIO, TO THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, DATED PHILADELPHIA, PA., 26TH OCTOBER, 1876.

In connection with the subject of exchanges of school material and appliances for the proposed Pedagogical Museum at Washington, and our Educational Museum in connection with our Department at Toronto, a plan has suggested itself, which, with the concurrence of the Minister of Education for Ontario, I desire to submit for your consideration.

In the United States building of the International Exhibition, there are a number of things of special interest and value which it is likely can be duplicated, and which are well adapted to the purpose of our Museum. I refer especially to a typical collection of casts of fish, of photographs of fish, Indian curiosities and photographs, geological models and photographs of scenery, models of caves and cliff ruins, &c., in Colorado, as well as selections from the articles specially exhibited by your own Bureau, and the Agricultural Department, &c.

As the whole of these exhibits are, I believe, more or less under the control of the United States Government, it has occurred to me that such articles in our school exhibit here as might be desired for the United States Pedagogical Museum could be exchanged through you, for such of the articles designated as could be conveniently duplicated.

Should this mode of exchange be practicable, I would thank you at an early day to make such a selection from our school exhibit as you think fit. I would then give directions to Dr. May to hand them over to you at the close of the Exhibition, leaving the details of the exchange to be arranged subsequently.

In the meantime, I shall prepare and send to you a detailed list of such things as I think would be suitable for our Museum, with the understanding that where duplicates cannot be supplied they be omitted from the list.

Most of those in charge of school exhibits for the various States in the Union have expressed a wish to effect changes with our Department. We should, however, prefer to have to do with your Bureau exclusively in this matter. These States might, however, obtain from us, through you, duplicates of any which the State Education Departments concerned might desire, especially as the selection made by you from our school exhibits would likely embrace everything of practical value in it.

I expect to leave Philadelphia in a few days, and as I desire to give specific directions to Dr. May in the matter, in connection with arrangements for packing, &c., I will thank you for a reply to this letter at your earliest convenience.

No. 5.—TELEGRAM FROM THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION TO THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION FOR ONTARIO, DATED WASHINGTON, 29TH OCTOBER, 1876,

Shall be happy to see you here Wednesday and can reply then.

After meeting with General Eaton and discussing the whole question, he addressed*to me the following reply to my letter on the subject of the exchanges.

No. 6.—LETTER FROM THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION TO THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EDUCATION FOR ONTARIO, DATED DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, BUREAU OF EDUCATION, WASHINGTON, D.C., 31ST OCTOBER, 1876.

Your favor of October 26th, from Philadelphia, is duly received. I am very greatly obliged by the consideration given by yourself and the Honorable the Minister of Education for Ontario to the proposition to exchange school material and appliances.

There are articles in your exhibition at Philadelphia which will be of great value to our proposed National Pedagogical Museum. It would also give me pleasure to make this office the medium of exchange of articles between yourself and the several State Museums at Philadelphia, which will be of great value to our proposed National Pedagogical Museum. It would also give me pleasure to make this office the medium of exchange of articles between yourself and the several State Museums, of this character.

I have carefully considered and heartily approve the provisional plan you suggest for the beginning of the exchanges. I shall be happy to receive the list of articles you mention as being in your exhibit which you are willing to exchange; and shall also be happy to receive the memoranda of the articles in the Government Building which you consider especially desirable for your Museum, and shall take great satisfaction in procuring duplicates as far as in my power for transmission to Ontario.

II.—EXCHANGE OF SCHOOL MATERIAL BETWEEN THE JAPANESE AND ONTARIO EDUCATION DEPARTMENTS.

During my stay in Philadelphia in July, I had several conferences with the Japanese Commissioners, chiefly in regard to an exchange of school material, between the Japanese and Ontario Education Departments. The result was most satisfactory. In the following month after my return to Toronto, the Honorable the Vice-Minister of Education, Hon. Fugimaro Tanaka, addressed me the following letter:—

No. 1.—DATED 1621 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA, 12TH AUGUST, 1876.

"Hereby I wish to present you those books and charts which are used in our primary schools in Japan, and also the books named Riji-kotei, which have been composed of the translations of what we could investigate in Europe and America on the subject of Education, when we came for the purpose four years ago, so I shall be very happy if you accept them."

This letter was suitably acknowledged. Subsequently the following letter was received, dated 1621 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, August 19th, 1876:—

TELEGRAPHY.

Transmit the following.—

The Hop Situation.

The situation during the week has been one of neglect again, and brewers cannot be induced to take hold of stock excepting at a reduction, which growers refuse to concede. As has been before mentioned in these columns from all indications thus far apparent the outlook for the market would appear to be very blue for any free movement of the new growth excepting at very low prices. The outside quotation for choice to-day does not exceed 21 @ 22c. with the more frequent quotation obtainable 18 @ 20c. p. lb.

Receive the following:—

Messrs Wollonton & Son, of London, in their circular of the 1st inst., report that, following a season like the last, the present growth of hops has been awaited with more than an average amount of interest by all those connected with this variable crop, and picking being now almost completed, an impartial estimate may be formed of the extent and quality of the new growth. Opinions will always differ, and in the absence of any reliable statistics, calculations must, to a certain extent, be vague and indefinite, even when arrived at without a bias of speculative interest; but it may be fairly considered that the home growth represents an "Old Duty" of about £300,000, and when the extent and production of all the foreign hop growing district is also taken into account there cannot be the slightest doubt that this year's crop is of sufficient abundance to leave a surplus beyond the world's actual requirements.

| 5 | 5. Describe the duties of officers in charge of distilleries in reference to warehousing, ex-warehousing and removal of spirits from distilleries. |
| 5 | 6. What system of fermentation do distillers induce in grain for the production of alcohol, and wherein does it essentially differ from that produced by brewers in the production of ale ? |
| 5 | 7. What causes, either by accident or design, may interrupt or arrest any process of vinous fermentation ? |
| 5 | 8. What do you consider the special duty of officers in reference to fermenting tuns, their contents and registration during the working of distilleries ? |
| 5 | 9. Is there any reason known to you why fermenting tuns should be more closely and frequently examined (if possible) in distilleries where a clear wort or liquid extract is fermented than in those where the particles of grain or other substances are introduced in the fermenting tuns ? |

| 10 | 13. When about to take a special test of a tun, say No. 6, it was found that the products of two tuns previously distilled were in the closed spirit receiver, viz., 2,850 gallons at 54.6 o.p. In a distillery where 6,000 lbs. of grain per hour are distilled, there is a refrigerator 1,500 feet long and $1\frac{7}{8}$ inches diameter, situated between the safe enclosing the tail of the worm and the closed spirit receivers. Department of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, 17th May, 1883.

DEPARTMENT SECRETARY STATE, OTTAWA, 30th May, 1882.

SIR,—I have the honor to inform you that a despatch has been received at this Department from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, stating that he understands that it has recently been mentioned in the public journals that the Government of the Dominion have assumed to sell, for a nominal consideration, the Island known as "La Cloche," situated near the north shore of Georgian Bay, between Manitoulan Island and the Mainland, upon the claim that the Island of "La Cloche" was vested in that Government in trust for the Indians.

His Honor states that his Government would be glad to be informed whether or not this fact is as so mentioned; and if so, that they request information as to the grounds upon which the claim of the Dominion Government to the Island was founded, as so far as they are aware, this Island has, ever since the making of the Indian Treaty with Sir Francis Bond Head, at Manitowaning, in 1836, been deemed to be free from any claim of the Indians; and that if there was ever any doubt of the fact of the complete cession of "La Cloche" under that Treaty, the doubt would appear to have been removed by the Treaty of 1862.

He submits, however, that there was never any doubt that under the Manitowaning Treaty this Island, like the numerous other Islands along the north shore of Georgian Bay, became the property of the Crown, discharged of any trust in favor of the Indians, and that the most that was ever supposed to be reserved to the Indians under that Treaty was the three Islands which had been known by the name of "Manitoulin," namely, the 2nd Manitoulin, or Cockburn Island, the 3rd or Great Manitoulin, and the 4th Manitoulin, or Fitzwilliam Island, and the right given as to these Islands was not a general right of property attaching to all Indians, or to any tribe, or tribes, but was a right of habitation to be conferred upon such Indians as should take up their residence there.

It is further stated by His Honor that at the time this Treaty was made it was contemplated that a large number of Indians would remove to these Islands, but as this expectation was disappointed, a new arrangement was made by the Treaty of 1862, before referred to, and the right of the Indians to any beneficial interest in any of the Manitoulin Islands, except the Great Manitoulin, or in any Islands adjacent thereto, was surrendered, the Government undertaking to sell, for their benefit, such of the lands in the Great Manitoulin Island as should be assigned to the Indians upon that Island for their occupation.

His Honor adds that in case a sale has in fact been made, his Government would be glad to be informed of the amount of the purchase money, and the name or names of the purchaser or purchasers, rumour having stated the price at $1,500, the Island containing in the neighborhood of 40,000 acres, the greater part of which is land of excellent quality.

His Honor observes that it has also been stated that the Government of Canada has assumed to sell the Duck Islands, which lie, at a considerable distance, to the south of the Great Manitoulin Island, and that his Government desires to learn whether this statement is correct, and if so, the name of the person or persons to whom the sale has been made, and the price obtained.

He adds that if the Dominion Government has assumed to make these sales, his Government most earnestly protests against any further sales by the Dominion of any lands in any of the Islands on the north shore of the Georgian Bay, except in Great Manitoulin, unless with the concurrence of the Government of Ontario.

His Honor further requests that his Government may be furnished with a statement showing what Islands the Dominion Government claimed, or claims to be entitled to on the north shore of Georgian Bay, and the grounds of such claim, and states that as soon as this information is obtained, his Government will suggest some mode by which the question in dispute between the two Governments in respect of these Islands, and in respect of the Islands on the east shore of the Georgian Bay, south of Moose Deer Point, may be determined.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

EDWARD J. LANGEVIN, Under Secretary of State.

I think the question raised by the Government of Ontario turns on the fact of "La Cloche" and the other Islands named being or not being included in the description contained in the Treaties referred to. The papers had better be referred, with full extracts from the Treaties or reference to them and accurate statement of facts, with maps showing position of the Islands, to the Department of Justice, for report to the Minister of the Interior.

14th June, 1822.

A. CAMPBELL, Acting S. G. I. A.

(Memorandum.)

DEPARTMENT INDIAN AFFAIRS, OTTAWA, 13th June, 1882.

The undersigned has the honor to submit a letter dated the 30th ultimo, from the Under Secretary of State, communicating the contents of a despatch from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, relative to the Island of "La Cloche" and other islands in Lake Huron, held in trust by this Department, to be sold for the benefit of the Ojibeways and Chippewas of Manitoulin Island.

The undersigned begs to state, in connection therewith, that by a Treaty made at Manitowaning on the 9th of August, 1836, by Sir Francis Bond Head, with the Ottawas and Chippewas, who claimed the Islands known as the Manitoulin group, as well as the Islands on the north shore of Lake Huron, and which were also claimed by "the English." Sir Francis Bond Head, withdrew on behalf of His Majesty, all claim to these Islands, with a view to their being made a place of residence for any Indians who wished to be civilized, as well as to be totally separated from the whites.

By the same Treaty the Ottawas and Ojibeways relinquished their respective claims to these Islands, and agreed to their being made the property, under the Crown, of all Indians who might be allowed to reside on them.

It will therefore be seen that both the claims of the Crown to these Islands, except as a place of abode for Indians who might subsequently go there, and the claim of the Ottawa and Chippewa Indians, who disputed the right of the Crown to them, were relinquished by Sir Francis Bond Head, on behalf of the Crown, and by the Chiefs and principal men of the Ottawa and Chippewas Nation, who signed the Treaty on behalf of their people:

Consequently, the Islands in questions ceased to be, on that date, the property of either the Crown or of the Chippewa and Ottawa natives, and became the property of all Indians who might be allowed to reside on them.

On the 6th of October, in the year 1862, a treaty was made with the last named Indians, who, after removing to the Islands, became known as the Ojibewas and Ottawas of Manitoulin Island, by the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs (under authority of an Order by His Excellency in Council, dated the 12th of September, 1862), by which those Indians surrendered all their right, titles and interest and claim to the great Manitoulin Islands, and to "the Islands adjacent, which have been deemed or claimed to be appurtenant or belonging thereto," to have and to hold the same and every part thereof to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, forever, in consideration of a sum of money paid in hand, and in further consideration of such sums as may be realized, from time to time, as interest upon the purchase money of the lands thereby surrendered, to be sold for their benefit. It would, therefore, appear from the foregoing that this Department had a right to sell "La Cloche Island," which is adjacent to the Great Manitoulin Island, and certainly formed one of the groups referred to in the Treaty of 1836.

With regard to the amount realized for the sale of that Island, the undersigned has the honor to state that the sum of $2,500 was paid in full therefor, and not $1,500, as stated in the despatch from His Honor; and that price was based on the valuation, made by the local Indian Superintendent on Manitoulin Island.

As respects the Duck Islands, about the sale of which enquiry is also made by His Honor, the undersigned begs to state that these islands were sold on the 4th of October, 1881, and the price paid for them was 50 cents per acre; the purchaser being at the expense of surveying them.

The rate charged is the same as that at which lands surveyed at the expense of the Department on the Manitoulin Islands are sold.

As regards the Islands claimed by the Provincial Government on the north shore of the Georgian Bay, the facts above stated would go to show that all the Islands on the north shores of Georgian Bay and Lake Huron belong properly to the Dominion Government; and that the Treaty of 1850, made by the Hon. William Robinson, with the Ojibeways of Lake Huron, whereby they undertook to surrender, along with the lands on the north shore, the Islands opposite thereto, was ultra vires, in so far as these Islands were concerned; as the Ojibeways, as well as the Ottawa Indians, had previously to the date of the Robinson Treaty, namely, by the Treaty of 1836, with Sir Francis Bond Head, relinquished all claim to said Islands; and therefore, at the date of the Treaty of 1850, they had no interest in the islands to surrender.

The undersigned is of the opinion that the above facts should be communicated to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, through the proper channel.

Respectfully submitted.

L. VANKOUGHNET,
Deputy Superintendent-General Indian Affairs.

Hon. Sir ALEXANDER CAMPBELL,
Acting Supt-General of Indian Affairs.

DEPARTMENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, OTTAWA, 19th June, 1882.

SIR,—I am directed by the Acting Supt.-General of Indian Affairs to enclose to you the papers, relating to the respective claims of the Dominion Government of Canada and the Provincial Government of Ontario, to the Island of La Cloche and other islands referred to in the despatch of the 30th ultimo, placed herewith from the Under-Secretary of State, communicating the views and wishes of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, in respect to the matter in dispute.

I enclose also a copy of the Treaty made by His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head at Manitowaning on the 9th August 1836 with the Ottawa and Chippewa Indians who claimed the Manitoulin group of Islands on the North shore of Lake Huron, but whose claim was contested by the Crown.—

I also forward herewith a copy of a work edited by the Hon. Alexander Morris, and have to refer you to page 305 for the text of the Robinson Treaty, made in the year 1850, at Sault Ste. Marie, by the late Hon. William Robinson with the Ojibeway Indians inhabiting and claiming the eastern and northern shores of Lake Huron; and for the text of the Treaty made with the Chiefs and principal men of the Ottawa, Chippewa and other Indians, in the year, 1862, by the then Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs and the Deputy Superintendent-General, at Manitowaning, on the Great Manitoulin Island, I have to refer you to page 309 of the same work.

I likewise forward herewith plans which I have lettered respectively "A" and "B."—"A" shows the great Manitoulin Island and the Islands adjacent thereto, which are claimed by this Department under the Treaty of 1862 as disposable by it in the interests of the Indians who were parties to that Treaty. "B" shows the Islands opposite the north shore of the Georgian Bay, referred to in the Treaty of 1850, made by the Hon. William Robinson with the Ojibeway Indians, and both maps show the Islands referred to in the Treaty of 1836, made by Sir Francis Bond Head, with the Ottawa and Chippewa Indians.

I am not aware of any further facts to communicate than those that are contained in my memorandum of the 13th instant, also placed herewith, to the Acting Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, in respect to these Islands and surrenders. I may remark en passant that this Department has made no sales of Islands described in map lettered "B," but that it has dealt with both this land and timber on some of these Islands, laid down upon map lettered "A," and up to the date of the letter from the Under Secretary of State, of the 30th ultimo, its right to do so was not, as far as I am aware, disputed by the Government of Ontario.

I am to request that you will give your opinion on this question of title to these Island, for the information of the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

L. VANKOUGHNET,
Deputy Superintendent-General Indian Affairs.

GEO. W. BURBIDGE, Esq., Deputy Minister of Justice.

OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE, 30th May, 1882.

SIR,—I have the honor to inform you that a despatch has been received at this Department, from His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, stating that he understands that it has recently been mentioned in the public journals that the Government of the Dominion have assumed to sell, for a nominal consideration, the Island known as "La Cloche," situated near the north shore of Georgian Bay, between Manitoulin Island and the Mainland, upon the claim that the Island of La Cloche was vested in that Government, in trust for the Indians.

His Honour states that his Government would be glad to be informed whether or not the fact is as mentioned, and if so, that they request information as to the grounds upon which the claim of the Dominion Government to the Island was founded as, so far as they are aware, this Island has, ever since the making of the Indian Treaty with Sir Francis Bond Head, at Manitowaning, in 1836, been deemed to be free from any claim of the Indians, and that if there was ever any doubt of the fact of the complete cession of "La Cloche" under that Treaty, the doubt would appear to have been removed by the Treaty of 1862. He submits, however, that there was never any doubt that under the Manitowaning Treaty this Island, like the numerous other Islands along the north shore of Georgian Bay, became the property of the Crown, discharged of any trust in favor of the Indians, and that the most that was ever supposed to be reserved to the Indians under that Treaty was the three Islands, which had been known by the name of "Manitoulin," namely, the 2nd Manitoulin, or Cockburn Island, the 3rd or Great Manitoulin, and the 4th Manitoulin, or Fitzwilliam Island, and the right given as to these Islands was not a general right of property attaching to all Indians or to any tribe or tribes, but was a right of habitation, to be conferred upon such Indians as should take up their residence there.

It is further stated by His Honor that at the time this Treaty was made, it was contemplated that a large number of Indians would remove to these Islands, but as this expectation was disappointed, a new arrangement was made by the Treaty of 1862 before referred to, and the right of the Indians to any beneficial interest in any of the Manitoulin Islands, except the Great Manitoulin, or in any Islands adjacent thereto, was surrendered, the Government undertaking to sell for their benefit such of the lands in the Great Manitoulin Island as should be assigned to the Indians upon that Island for their occupation. His Honor adds, that in case a sale has in fact been made, his Government would be glad to be informed of the amount of the purchase money, and the name or names of the purchaser or purchasers.

Having stated the price at $1,500, the Island containing in the neighbourhood of 40,000 acres, the greater portion of which is land of excellent quality.

His Honor observes that it has also been stated that the Government of Canada has assumed to sell the Duck Islands, which lie at a considerable distance to the south of the Great Manitoulin Island, and that his Government desires to learn whether this statement is correct, and if so, the name of the person or persons to whom the sale has been made and the price obtained. He adds, that if the Dominion Government has assumed to make these sales, his Government most earnestly protests against any further sales by the Dominion of any lands in any of the Islands on the north shore of the Georgian Bay, except in Great Manitoulin, unless with the concurrence of the Government of Ontario.

His Honor further request that his Government may be furnished with a statement showing what Islands the Dominion Government claimed or claim to be entitled to as the north shore of the Georgian Bay and the grounds of such claim, and states that as soon as this information is obtained, his Government will suggest some mode by which the questions in dispute between the two Governments, in respect of these Islands and in respect of the Islands on the east shore of the Georgian Bay, south of Moose Deer Point, may be determined.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

EDWARD J. LANGEVIN, Under Secretary of State,

Deputy Superintendent-General, Indian Affairs.

DEPARTMENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, 29th May, 1882.

SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch of the 23rd inst., requesting, on behalf of your Government, information in reference to certain alleged sales by the Government of the Dominion, of the Island known as "La Cloche," situated near the north shore of Georgian Bay, and of the Duck Islands, south of the great Manitoulin Island.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

EDWARD J. LANGEVIN, Under Secretary of State.

His Honour the Lieut.-Governor, Ontario.

TORONTO, 23rd May, 1882.

SIR,—I understand that it has recently been stated in the public journals that the Government of the Dominion have assumed to sell, for a nominal consideration, the Island known as "La Cloche," situated near the north shore of Georgian Bay, between Manitoulin Island and the Mainland, upon the claim that the Island of La Cloche was vested in that Government in trust for the Indians.

My Government would be glad to be informed whether this fact is as so stated, and they respectfully request information as to the grounds upon which the claim of the Dominion Government to the Island was founded, as so far as they are aware, this Island has, ever since the making of the Indian Treaty with Sir Francis Bond Head, at Manitowaning, in 1836, been deemed to be free from any claim of the Indians.

If there was ever any doubt of the fact of the complete cession of "La Cloche" under that Treaty, the doubt would appear to have been removed by the Treaty of 1862.

But it is submitted that there never was any doubt that under the Manitowaning Treaty, this Island, like the numerous other Islands along the north shore of Georgian Bay, became the property of the Crown, discharged of any trust in favor of the Indians, and that the most that was ever supposed to be reserved to the Indians under that Treaty was the three Islands which had been known by the name, "Manitoulin," namely, the 2nd Manitoulin, or Cockburn Island; the 3rd, or Great Manitoulin, and the 4th Manitoulin, or Fitzwilliam Island, and the right given as to these Islands was not a general right of property attaching to all Indians, or to any tribe or tribes, but was a right of habitation, to be conferred upon such Indians as should take up their residence there.

At the time this Treaty was made, it was contemplated that a large number of Indians would remove to these Islands, but as this expectation was disappointed, a new arrangement was made by the Treaty of 1862, before referred to, and the right of the Indians to any beneficial interest in any of the Manitoulin Islands, except the Great Manitoulin, or in any Islands adjacent thereto, was surrendered, the Government undertaking to sell for their benefit such of the lands in the Great Manitoulin Island as should be assigned to the Indians upon that Island for their occupation.

In case a sale has in fact been made, my Government will be glad to be informed of the amount of the purchase money and the name, or names, of the purchaser or purchasers. Rumor has stated the price at $1,500.

The Island contains in the neighborhood of 40,000 acres, the greater part of which is land of excellent quality.

It has also been stated that the Government of Canada has assumed to sell the Duck Islands, which lie at a considerable distance to the south of the Great Manitoulin Island. My Government desires to learn whether this statement is correct, and, if so, the name of the person or persons to whom the sale has been made, and the price obtained.

If the Dominion Government has assumed to make these sales, my Government most earnestly protests against any further sales by the Dominion of any lands in any of the Islands on the north shore of the Georgian Bay, except in Great Manitoulin, unless with the concurrence of the Government of Ontario.

I have the honor to request a statement showing what Islands the Dominion Government claimed or claim to be entitled to, on the north shore of Georgian Bay, and the grounds of such claim.

As soon as this information is obtained, my Government will suggest some mode by which the questions in dispute between the two Governments in respect of these Islands, and in respect of the Islands on the east shore of Georgian Bay, south of Moose Deer Point, may be determined.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. B. ROBINSON, Lieutenant-Governor Ontario.

Hon. Secretary of State.

OTTAWA, April, 1883.
